Esther — Week 3 — Salvation and the Providence of God

Psalm 115:3 says, “Our God is in heaven; He does whatever pleases Him.” It pleases the all-powerful, creator of the universe to accomplish His purposes by working through broken people. Could God have found a way to save His people without using Esther? Absolutely! God chooses to involve us because of His great love for us. We are truly blessed that God uses us as He unfolds His plan.

- How is God calling you to take step up for Him ?
- How has God used you in the past? How is God using the things from your past to prepare you for the future?
- When you see people become Christ-followers how does it make you feel?
- We are commanded to share the good news. Who has God placed on your heart?

What prevents you from getting outside of your comfort zone and reaching the lost?

It is good to see the needs of the hungry or sick met by willing and able believers. When we help meet those needs, we get a unique perspective. By working through us, God is choosing to bless us in ways that we could never imagine. What blessings are you missing out on by not allowing God to use you to serve others?
