Guest Speaker — Jeff Kapusta — Damaged Goods

The old saying goes, “One man’s junk is another man’s treasure.” We buy beat up and dented junk at garage sales because we can picture what that junk could become if we just fixed it up a little. When broken and beat up junk is put in the hands of a person with vision, something amazing can happen. Our lives are often just like the junk at a garage sale. In God’s hands our broken lives find restoration and renewal.

- What are some things we all have in common? (Romans 3:23)
- What dent in your life have you allowed to define you? Why are we not defined by our dents? (2 Corinthians 5:16)
- What do other people see when they look at you? (1 Samuel 16:7)
- What are the things in your life that make you feel worthless? (Colossians 3:1-2)
- What would it take for you to turn loose of your dent and allow God to make you new?
- What type of potential is within you underneath all of your dents and scratches? (2 Corinthians 5:17-18)

God purchased us by sending Jesus to die for our sins. He wants nothing more than for us to allow him to mend our broken and dented lives back together. When we look in the mirror and see worthless, God sees priceless. When we can only see our flaws God sees our future. Will we allow our dents to continue to define us or will we allow our lives to be defined by Jesus?
